INTRODUCTION

The origin of the Holsinger family has not been determined but the first record found of Immigrants by that name is in 1731. Two men with their families, from the Palatinate in the Province of Hesse, Germany, came to America in that year. Rudolph signed his name by mark in the ship's register and it is spelled Holsinger. Jacob signed his own name and it appears to be spelled Holtzinger. Rudolph was eight years older than Jacob and landed three weeks before him. There is nothing to indicate any relationship, however they did settle in the same section of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. All the descendants of Rudolph use "s" while some of the descendants of Jacob use "s" and others use "tz" in spelling their last name. Recent correspondence indicates that both spellings can be found in Germany today.

Old American Records contain various spellings for the family name and frequently they seem to be used interchangeably. Spellings such as these are found- Holsinger, Halsinger, Holsenger, Holsonger, Holsiger, Holssinger, Holtzinger, Holtsinger, Haltzinger and Holzinger. The spelling Holtzinger appears in a 1783 census but not in the 1790 complete census.

Although a Holsinger family coat-of-arms has appeared on the market, it is doubtful if it carries much significance.

My brother has a letter dated August 17, 1956 from a Wilhelm Holzinger of 207 Schwarzwald Str., Freiburg (Brig), Germany written to Samuel J. Holsinger, then stationed in Germany. In this letter Wilhelm mentions some research he made into the Holzinger family in Germany but his records were lost during the war. In his letter, he indicated that the history of Holzingers goes back to an old Frankisch-Allemanish family which settled and lived in the Free City "Weil der Stadt", (today's northern part of Wittenberg). According to documents, this dates back to the 13th or 14th century and he feels the present Holsingers with various spellings are descendants of this family.

At the time of the Thirty Year War, (about 1633), three Holzinger families lived in Weil der Stadt, one of whom became the only Lutheran Mayor of the town. After the battle of Norlingen, they left for religious reasons and settled in Merklingen, a Lutheran Community. The Church Records at Merklingen are well kept and include Holzinger records. Two other books contain material on the Holzinger family-

"Oberamt Leonberg" published by "Württ, Statistischen Landesamt, Verlag von W. Rohhammer in Stuttgart", and "Wuttemberg Documentary book for nobility and crest, (Würt. Adels und Wappenbuch). These books can be found in the larger libraries there.

PREFACE

Gathering material for this history was begun in 1937 as a hobby. At that time I had personal knowledge of less than a dozen families by the name Holsinger. My father had a record of a few more. With this nucleus and an urge to learn more about my family, the undertaking was started and has continued with increasing interest ever since. Contained in Section I of this book is a record of about 5400 descendants of Rudolph Holsinger. An estimated 1300 more have not been reported. Section II, if completed, would have a like number and the other Sections in proportion.

In compiling a record of this sort, it is evident that many years are necessary, many old records must be searched, many places visited and many letters written. Even then it is possible only through the co-operation of those to whom letters are sent. Many branches still remain incomplete because we have not been able to locate records or persons with this information. We are indebted to every cousin who supplied any data. My part was to collect it and assemble it in a systematic order, a most fascinating hobby. Please pardon any errors that appear. Every effort has been made to keep them at a minimum.

Although it is realized that pictures would add tremendous interest to a history of this sort, the additional cost would make the price prohibitive.

Special credit is due some who assisted in a large way in developing certain sections.

Lawrence W. Shultz of North Manchester for the Ulrich line, descendants of Catherine Holsinger.

Clair P. Holsinger of New Enterprise, Pa. for the many families living in Morrison Cove.

Mrs. Harry S. Holsinger of Lancaster, Pa. for research in Lancaster and York Counties.

Frank E. Hess of Goshen, Ind. for part of Section VI.

J. W. Holsinger of Berkeley, Calif. for descendants of Albert Holsinger.

Charlotte Holsinger Bennett for Emanuel Holsinger family.

Elizabeth Holsinger Beanblossom for Alexander Holsinger family.

Frank L. Crone of Richmond, Va. for most of the Crone family of Section II.

For the most part, this volume deals with the descendants of the immigrant Rudolph Holsinger, Section I. In contacting every Holsinger name that could be found, several other Holsinger lines were discovered whose relationship to Rudolph has not been established. These lines have been partially developed and included in separate sections in the hope that some day actual relationship can be determined.

Names of the following Holsingers are found in early records.

Andreas Holsinger, Lancaster Co., Pa., 1735. Nothing further.

Conrad Holsinger, Lancaster Co., Pa. 1790 Census. (Section II.)

George Holsinger, Franklin Co., Pa. 1790 Census. (Section I.)

George John Holsinger, Philadelphia Co., Pa. 1735. Nothing further.

It is hoped that the publishing of this volume will not end the research into the Holsinger family. The author intends to keep adding to his file as new data is obtained. He will welcome any corrections or information on incomplete lines. The Baker line, descendants of Nancy Holsinger, No. 7, is entirely missing. This alone will make a small book. Perhaps, some day, someone will wish to fill this and other gaps to make a supplement.

GUIDE FOR EASY USE

Individual biographies are grouped by generations beginning with the first recorded ancestor as number one. His children in chronological order are the second generation and their children make up the third generation, etc. Each family is assigned a separate number followed by their lineal descent. The number of numbers in each series is the same as the generation to which each belongs.

For example, No. 473-87-19-4-2-1. 473 refers to the individual's biography number in the sixth generation, 87 is the biography number of his parents, 19 his grandparents and so on back to No. 1.

Relationship between two individuals can quickly be determined by placing the one series of numbers above the other.

2191-466-85-19-4-2-1

2241-473-87-19-4-2-1

Here the first common ancestor is 19 of the fourth generation, 85 and 87 are brothers, 466 and 473 are first cousins and 2191 and 2241 are second cousins.

When no great grandchildren are reported, each biography will include the write-up for the children and grandchildren, but when great grandchildren are reported, the children's write-up will be continued in the next generation under their own biography number.

A complete biography in cases where the items apply and are reported for both husband and wife, will include biography number with lineage; chronological position in family; full name and commonly used name; name of parents with other ancestors; date and place of birth; education; occupation; hobbies and items of interest; military service; fraternal organizations; church affiliations; address; date and place of death; place of burial; date, place, by whom and to whom married; ancestors of spouse and children in order of birth with dates. Data which applies to both husband and wife is given at the end of the write-up.

In addition to commonly used abbreviations, the following abbreviations and characters are used.

ad- address

b born

bu buried (at), (in) ch children

d died

da daughter of grad graduate (d), (of), (from)

L- Insufficient mailing address or last reported residence

m married (to); m(1), m(2), if married more than once s son of

" commonly used name or nick-name in quotation marks

Holsinger descendants in capital letters

2 of 3 means second child in a family of three children, etc.

Guide for easy use

To avoid repetition, the name of the State is not given more than once in a write-up unless necessary. It applies until a different State is mentioned.

In using the index, some difficulty may be experienced. The commonly used name is used in the index when it is reported, otherwise the first name will appear in the index. If the name for which you are looking cannot be found, it may be recorded under the individual's other name.

Double lineage occurs when cousins intermarry. Only one series will be used and a slight departure from the routine system may occur.

 Additional information in supplement. Data received too late to be included in regular order.

SECOND GENERATION

No. 2-1

JACOB HOLSINGER, (s RUDOLPH and Magdalena HOLSINGER), b June 24, 1731 on board the ship Britania near Amsterdam, Holland, on the way to America and arrived at Philadelphia Sept. 21, 1731.

About 1751 Jacob went to Franklin County, Pa. and hired himself to a Mr. Stoner, a large land owner. In the Waynesboro, Pa. Records, Feb. 1907 and 1919 the following paragraphs appear. "The good people of the valley were at times molested by hostile tribes of Indians who traveled this way, remaining for a shorter or longer time. At such times many of the settlers left here, not returning till the savages departed. On one of these occasions, Mr. Stoner and family took a few of their belongings and moved to other parts. The balance of their property, such as horses, cattle and household goods, they could not take."

"Young Holsinger volunteered to remain. Possibly thought he might save the valuable property. He did save it, as the sequel turned out. At night he slept in the mill with a gun by his side ready for any outbreak. During the day he stayed in the house frequently surrounded by Indians. By being clever to them, he gained their good will giving them a few minor presents and small pieces of silver coin and perhaps a little whiskey, for every mill in those days had a small distillery".

"Some people passing the place were less fortunate. He saw some men beaten by the redskins. One man died from his wounds. Just how much mischief they did in the neighborhood young Holsinger didn't know, for he never left the place. Finally the savages left the place and the Stoners returned. Finding everything all right, Mr. Stoner generously gave Holsinger 180 acres of the best limestone land in Franklin County, the two farms of George Foltz and Jacob Hess, just west of town. In 1872, Daniel Holsinger, the grandson of Jacob, sold 165 acres of that land for $17,000. The balance was afterwards sold for nearly $3000."

Four generations of "Jacob Holsingers" have lived on this farm.

Jacob was a farmer. He died Feb. 9, 1817 near Waynesboro, Franklin Co., buried in the cemetery on the old Stoner farm near Waynesboro; married 1758 to Susanna Yeakel, (Jackel), born Dec. 6, 1740, died May 18, 1799. Nine children. His will written 1810 mentions Jacob, George, John, David and Nancy.

Census of 1790, page 119, Jacob Holsinger, Franklin Co., Pa. - 2 males over 16, 2 males under 16 and 2 females. These would represent himself and John; Jacob and David; his wife and daughter Nancy. George was married and recorded separately.

John and Elizabeth Mack Holsinger with about five others are buried in a small plot about one mile west of the Holsinger Cemetery at Bakers Summit, Pa. Their descendants have sponsored a fund and have erected a fence around this plot. They are now sponsoring a fund to erect an appropriate marker.

Elizabeth Mack was a great grand daughter of Alexander Mack Sr., co-founder of the German Baptist Brethren Church, now known as Dunkard or Church of the Brethren. Two of Elizabeth's sisters also married Holsingers - No. 6, and No. 11. Since many descendants of Rudolph Holsinger are members of the Church of the Brethren, it may be of interest to them to know that all with a lineage number containing the figure 4 or 6 in the third generation or 11 in the fourth are descendants of Alexander Mack. Other descendants of Alexander Mack can be found in Freeman Ankrum's book, "Alexander Mack The Tunker."

Following his death the Chase County News, Kansas, contained the following- "One of Chase County's oldest pioneers passed Monday with the death of W. H. Mr. Holsinger's brother George, who survives him, was the first white child born in Chase County, this territory being completely under the residential dominance of the red men at the time of arrival of the settlers from Indiana."

Among the telegrams of condolence received by the members of the family was a fine tribute from Charles Curtis, Vice president of the United States and a life-long friend of Mrs. Holsinger.

Member of Church of the Brethren since age of nine, elected to the ministry May 29, 1910 and advanced to Eldership in 1919. Served on Standing Committee of the Church at its Annual Conference in Calgary, Canada in 1923 and was Secretary of the Program Committee for that Conference.

Aside from his teaching profession, he served in many capacities- Middle Indiana District Sunday School Secretary and Fieldman 1916-1946; Active in Youth Work and from 1924-1956 with his wife and family was in charge of Camp Mack; Member of the General Board of Christian Education of the Church 1924-1942; Helped originate the Brethren Service Committee in 1939-40 and served as a member until 1946. A large party went with him to Europe in the summer of 1958 on the Anniversary Tour commemorating 250 years of the Church of the Brethren. He also aided in the revised "History of the Church of the Brethren in Indiana" 1952.

The author is indebted to him for the valuable assistance he gave in obtaining the greater part of the records contained herein of the descendants of Catherine Holsinger (No. 10) and John Ulrich. Without his efforts much of the Ulrich line would be incomplete.

Sailed from Rotterdam in Ship Snow Lowther under James Fisher, Master.
Landed at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania October 14, 1731.

Reproduction of his signature appears in Volume II, Page 47, First column, Fifteenth name.

Immigrant Jacob Holtzinger.

Translation of his will dated October 27, 1760.

"Whereas, I, Jacob Holtzinger, well knowing the uncertainty of human life have therefore thought to make provision for my wife Veronica, children and heirs, recommending my soul and spirit in the hands of God.

First, it is my last will that after my decease, my personal estate shall be divided in manner following; My wife, Veronica, shall have in the first place two horses for working and a young colt aforehand and three cows and three sheep aforehand and all other movables of what name soever shall be sold by private sale or auction and my eldest son Bernhard shall first have five pounds lawful money of Pennsylvania aforehand and he, the said Bernhard Holtzinger and my son John Jacob shall each of them have the sum of fifteen pounds by reason of their deceased mother, being together thirty pounds and all the residue after my wife Veronica has taken her third part thereof shall be divided among my now living children in equal shares, one as much as the other of my five children and I appoint my wife Veronica executrix or guardian of my younger children.

And, as to the plantation, I order and it is my will that the plantation and land Thereto shall be preserved for my two sons, Conrad and Engelhard without dividing it until my two younger sons have attained their age and the mother shall not only have the third part of the benefits thereof but also as long as she remains a widow and my younger sons have not attained their age, she shall have liberty to use the whole place with her children, but if she should marry again, then only the third part of the benefit of the land shall be in her possession according to law.

And when my younger sons Conrad and Engelhard have attained their age, the plantation shall be appraised and the price or money for which it may be appraised shall in like manner as above mentioned moveables be divided among my now living children or their heirs in equal shares to the eldest as much as to the youngest.

But nevertheless, my said wife shall further have my bed out of the above mentioned moveables. And my daughter Anna Maria Holtzinger also shall have a bed with all thereto belonging and a chest aforehand.

That the above is my last will and testament, I hereby certify with my own hand and seal in Earl Township upon my plantation in Lancaster County in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and sixty on the twenty-seventh of October."

Jacob Holtzinger.

Witnesses:- Henry Kemper, Michael Oberlin and Barnard Hauer.

As only four of Bernhard's children participated in the settlement of Veronica's third of Jacob's estate on June 3, 1782, it can be assumed that the other children died before this date without descendants. The same four were named in their mother's will. Also the daughter-in-law Elizabeth named could have been John's widow.

Note - In Bergestrasse Lutheran Church Record, Jacob, son of Conrad was born Oct. 4, 1809. In Muddy Creek Lutheran Church Records is recorded a Jacob Holsinger, born Nov. 6, 1809, died Oct. 17, 1877.
His marriage to Hannah Kimber is recorded to be May 3, 1838. Her birth Feb. 16, 1812 and her death Sept. 6, 1885. Same dates of birth and death for both Jacob and Hannah are on their grave stone in Ber-gestrasse Lutheran Cemetery. The story is told that while Hannah Kimber or Kemper was living at the Cloisters at Ephrata, she eloped with Jacob Holsinger. If both Church Records are correct, then there were two Jacob Holsingers in the same area born in 1809.

Whose son was the one who married Hannah Kemper? She is named as Jacob's wife in John Kemper's will, dated Apr. 3, 1867 of which Jacob was executor. Jacob and Hannah owned a grocery store in Hinkletown.
